

User Note Categories

Categories

Notes are a function where users can create and store notes on the Hub. On the /administrator interface, an administrator can manage the notes created by users. This section allows an administrator to create new note categories and batch process selected categories.