

Courses

What is a course?

A course is an online class on the hub. The HUBzero courses platform offers many features to get you up and running, distributing online course materials and interactive content to a local classroom, or around the world. Watch lectures taught by world-class professors, learn at your own pace, test your knowledge, and earn recognition for your achievements.