Curation Workflow

Curation: Assign Reviewers to Publications

1. Navigate to <http://yourhub.org/publications/curation> to view the list of Publications pending review.

2. Click Assign to delegate the task of curation to a member of the HUB.

Note: Anyone with an account on the Hub can be assigned to review a Publication. IF the user is not a member of the curator's group, they will only have access to review the Publications which they are assigned. Only ONE curator can be assigned to review a Publication at a time.

Reviewing a Publication:

1. Click Review next to a publication to start the review process on that publication.
2. Type the name of the member being assigned this Publication in the text box and click Save.
3. All items and context will be listed. Click the Looks Good button (the checkmark) next to an item to approve it, or click the Requires Changes button (the no symbol) to indicate the item needs changes.

3. If the publication has already been reviewed once before, the author may have disputed changes.

This will show as a yellow Changes required button with the author comments shown on the page.

4. If additional changes are needed, type and explanation in the textbook that appears and click

The screenshot shows a web interface for requesting changes. At the top, the heading "Request changes" is followed by a horizontal dotted line. Below this, a light blue bar contains the text "Curation Item: Publication Title". Underneath, the instruction "Explain to authors what needs to change" is displayed. A text input field contains the text "The title needs to be more descriptive". At the bottom center of the form is a button labeled "Request changes".

5. Once all items have been reviewed, click the button that lights up on the bottom blue bar. Approve

Publication will only appear if all individual items were approved. Otherwise, click Kick back to

Author: Make Requested Changes:

The screenshot shows the qa200 website interface for a publication submission. The top navigation bar includes the qa200 logo and links for DISCOVER, COMMUNITY, ABOUT, and SUPPORT. A search icon and a user profile icon are also present. Below the navigation is a blue header with the text 'Publications: Submit' and a link to 'Learn more'. The main content area is titled 'My publications » "King Arther-Publication"' and shows a list of versions with 'Version 1.0 (Changes required)' selected. A table of metadata for this version is displayed, including title, version label, number, creation date, author, content, status, DOI, submission date, release date, and URL. The status is 'Changes required'. To the right, a section titled 'Your options' contains a message from the curator and a 'Make changes' button.
