Forum Email Digest

On each Hub there is a way for users to receive daily/weekly/monthly digest emails containing all of the posts that have been made inside of a Group's Forum. To sign up to receive these emails, follow these steps:

- 1. Navigate to a group your choice and click on the Forum tab
- 2. Inside the Forum, locate the right column on the page and locate the Email Settings area
- 3. Click on the Change your settings link and from the pop-up manage your email settings
 - 1. ?First, check the box next to "Email me about new posts in this group and send me those emails..."
 - 2. Secondly, select the way in which you want to receive forum posts by selecting "Individually as new posts are made" or "As part of a (Daily, Weekly, or Monthly) email digest"
 - 1. Note: To determine the frequency, select the time frame (i.e. daily, weekly, or monthly) from the drop-box
- 4. After managing your settings click Save
